

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

"... these guys invented their own style, known as Juke, composed of hot blues, they conceptualize a stew whose ingredients include swing, rock, boogie, Latin, country, reggae, Cajun, funk, and the kitchen sink. No, not the kitchen sink, just about everything but.."

- Greta Cornett & Pat Hartman,
Scene Magazine (Oct 31, 2008)

"Papa Juke is the best new Colorado band of 2008!"

- John Stadler, producer of the Tuesday Blues TV Show (Jan. 8, 2008)

"Papa Juke is an awesome roots based blues band driven by the sweet harmonica stylings of Mad Dog."

- Tony Soto, Waterloo Icehouse
(Dec 22, 2008)

Papa Juke is blues with a difference, blues with a heritage, blues with an attitude.

Papa Juke is what happens when four dynamic veteran musicians join forces to create a diverse mix of hot, original blues flavored music. Papa

Juke is Christine Webb on bass & vocals, Dave "Doc" Dougherty on guitar & vocals, Mark "Mad Dog" Friedman on harmonica & vocals and Dan Crecco on drums. Papa Juke plays across the Front Range of Colorado at a variety of venues and festivals.

Papa Juke is on fire this year after making it to the Final Round of the Colorado Blues Society's International Blues Competition. Papa Juke's live CD, Jukin' at Jack's, #3 on the blues chart for KRFC Radio, continues to be popular and the band is hard at work on a new studio CD soon to be released. Papa Juke won the "Best of Denver — Best Blues Jam" Award from Westword in 2009, and has performed at many outdoor concerts and festivals, including for the City of Arvada, the City of Lafayette, Engaging Loveland, Foothills Park & Rec and the Grand Lake Blues Festival. The band has headlined several successful benefit concerts with featured guests including Hazel Miller, John Magnie (Subdudes), Erica Brown and Lionel Young. Over the years, Papa Juke has performed hundreds of shows at local music clubs including Dazzle, Jazz @ Jack's, Avogadro's Number, Outlook Hotel, Waterloo, Center Stage at Boulder One, Lincoln's, Pappadeaux, Zephyr Lounge, Island Grill, Conor O'Neill's, Lakewood Grill, Jake's Roadhouse and Ziggies. Papa Juke has also appeared on Channel 9 News, KRFC FM, KGNU and CCTV 54. There seems to be no limit to the growing demand for their winning combination of superb song writing and their infectiously fun sound!
